Introduction: Look up the Bible texts and write a summary of what you read on the lines provided.

Revelation 12:11 _____
Having victory over Satan through believing in Christ's victory on the cross is made even more sure through sharing what you have learned about Jesus with others. Telling others about what God has done for you and all people in Christ is one of God's ways to increase your victory and your understanding of His good news.

Acts 1:8 _____
(Mark 16:15)
God wants His gospel to go out to all the world. And He wants to send it out through you and anyone else who is willing to represent Him. When you are believing the Good News about Christ, the Holy Spirit is present with you to make your words and influence effective and successful to draw others to also believe in Christ. As you have received the gospel riches of Christ through hearing and studying His Word, so the Lord promises to give you all you need to share it through studying it with others who may not have heard. You will find that this is positively the best way ever to retain and not forget those same precious truths of what God has done for and given to you.

The Good News:

John 1:29 _____
(1 Timothy 4:10; 1 John 2:2)

1 Timothy 1:15 _____

2 Corinthians 5:15 _____
(Hebrews 2:9)
Notice that Jesus' life and death, His victory is for every person. No one is left out. Because of this, the Holy Spirit moves us by God's love and grace to proclaim it to every man, woman, and youth: to tell them that through Christ they have been accepted by God, their sins taken care of and the promise given to them of eternal life.

God Has Reconciled and Justified Sinners:

Romans 5:6-8,18 _____

Romans 3:22-24, 29,30 _____
(Galatians 3:8)

1 Timothy 2:4,6 _____
(Ezekiel 18:23,30)

Every person on this earth is the object of God’s love, kindness, and free salvation. But most people are stumbling around in the darkness of sin, frustration, and defeat because they don’t know the truth about how God feels about them. They think He is against them when He is really for them. So God wants to get through to them and bring them light, freedom, and direction. He desires to tell them that He has given them in Christ the whole universe. The only way He chooses to do this however, is through you and me, simply sharing with others the same wonderful things we have learned about Him. He tells us, who have heard the Good News, to pass it on to someone else.

Ambassadors for God:

2 Corinthians 5:18-20 _____
God has made us His Ambassadors to represent Him before all people and to especially tell them that they have been reconciled to Him through Christ.

Isaiah 58,6-8 _____
(Matthew 5:44,45)

Some that we meet cannot at that time be told the gospel. They feel no need or have been prejudiced against God by hypocritical religious people in the past. So, the best way to stir up their interest in hearing the gospel is to help them in whatever they need, do good to them and go out of your way to be a blessing to them in tangible everyday matters of life. Keep it up until you have won their trust and confidence. Then they will begin coming to you with questions and the time for sharing God’s good Word will have arrived.
